Parking at St George's

The Parish has received a complaint regarding inconsiderate parking at St George's. If this continues, the police will be issuing £60 fixed penalty notices. The safety of pedestrians is the police's top priority. Vehicle parking on the pavement has been a long-term issue in Court Farm Road. We acknowledge the cars that park on the pavement do not always belong to people attending the church or parish hall. Nevertheless, can we please remind you to park responsibly when attending services at St George's. Please do not block the pavements and be considerate of wheelchair users, buggies, and pedestrians, ensuring everyone can safely access the pavements. We will of course be delivering this message to the other communities that also use St George's church and hall. Thank you for your co-operation.

28th July 2024: 17th Sunday of Ordinary Time, Yr. B
Weekdays: 17th Week of Year II

Fr Tony writes:

This week our eyes are turned to France, and I am not just talking about the Olympics! Rather I am thinking of the 700+ people from the diocese, old and young, sick and healthy, able bodied and those with impairments, helpers, chaplains, nurses, doctors and 'VIPs', first timers and veterans, who are gathered in Lourdes for the diocesan pilgrimage at this time. Some of these will have made 'Olympian' efforts to get to Lourdes, supported by friends, family, and parishes across the diocese. Our prayers are with them, and we know they will be praying for us.

PARIS 2024

The Olympics themselves remind us just what human beings can achieve if they commit themselves wholeheartedly to a goal. And while those achievements are built on God-given talents, without the effort those talents would not bear any fruit.

Now we know the vast majority of people could not run 100 meters in under 10.5 seconds or hop, skip and jump 18 meters, however hard they tried. But we all have gifts and talents, and are called to make use of them. Perhaps we feel like Philip in the Gospel, our 'five loaves and two fish' seem so inadequate. But, the Lord blesses our little offerings and makes them more than adequate for the tasks to which he calls us.

We continue to pray for the people of Ukraine. More info:

Youth Engagement in your Parish

Saturday 12 October 2024. Our Diocesan Youth Adviser is offering a taster event for those who would like to see more young people engaged in our Parish communities. During the day we will explore the options and opportunities available and begin to discern what approaches might be suitable for your community, and what the next steps could be.
